Cleaning out storage cages

It is time to clean out the areas surrounding our storage cages. Please be aware that no items are to be stored outside your cage except a bicycle. Any items not removed from outside the storage cages by October 31st will be donated to Eliza's Attic.

Also, any bikes without a label/name will also be donated to Eliza's Attic.

If you have not ridden your bike during the pandemic, consider donating it so someone else can enjoy it.

MEET THE CANDIDATES

We have created a virtual meet and greet for candidates who have requested to share their platform with you. Their videos are located on BG Life under, 2020 Candidates. For your convenience, there is an information station at the activities sign-up table with candidate campaign material.

If there is a candidate that would like to be added to this database, they may call Britt Lock to make arrangements.

Eliza's Attic Opens

A fresh coat of paint and some additional positive changes will welcome you back! All new merchandise will also be featured in the Attic. Moving forward, the Attic will be open Thursdays and Fridays from Noon – 3:00 PM. To assist with social distancing, only seven individuals are to be in the Attic at any one time. We thank all of our current and new volunteers, and certainly Cook and Sallie Gough, who are helping to make the Attic a great part of our Charitable Mission!

Winningham Court to Return: Dining in Winningham Court begins next week, Tuesday, October 6!

- Open Tuesday – Saturday
- 50% capacity or less, with seating adjusted to ensure social distancing.
- Reservations will be required as usual. Winningham reservations can be made through BGLife, as well as through the reservation line 843.406.6430 .
- Please remember, no guests at this time.
- If your table is not ready upon your arrival, please wait in the living room.
- Polly's Pub, will remain unopened, but look for the Happy Hour sign-ups!
